

201-F2 Utilizing All of Our Talents: Women in Science Session Structure

Date & Time: Sept 11, 2006, 10:00 am -12:00 pm (120 min)
Venue: Kyoto International Conference Hall, Room
Session type: Concurrent Brainstorming
Session format: see attached

Discussion Points:

- How do we ensure that all aspiring talents see equal opportunities in the world of science and innovation?
- How can diversity of actors benefit to the scientific world?

Chaired by:

- Kuniko Inoguchi, Minister, Ministry of Gender Equality and Social Affairs, JP

Invited Speakers:

- Béatrice Dautresme, Executive Vice-President Corporate Communications, External Affairs and Prospective, L'Oréal, FR
- Yolanda Kakabadse, Executive President, Fundación Futuro Latinoamericano, EC
- Lydia Makhubu, President, Third World Organization for Women in Science (TWOWS), SZ
- Gertrude I. Mongella, President, Pan-African Parliament, former Secretary General of the Women's Summit Conference in Beijing, TZ
- Geoffrey J. Oldham, Co-Chair of UN Gender Advisory Board, and, Former Director of Science and Technology Policy Unit at the University of Sussex, UK
- Judith C. Rodin, President, Rockefeller Foundation, US
- Joanna Rubinstein, Senior Associate Dean, Institutional and Global Initiatives, Columbia University Medical Center, US
- Usha B. Zehr, Joint Director of Research, Maharashtra Hybrid Seeds Company, IN